HOW TO REACH THE CHARLEMAGNE BUILDING?

From Brussels National Airport, Zaventem:

- ✓ By public transit: There is a convenient bus (lines 12 & 21) from the airport to the city centre. The closest stop to the Charlemagne building is Schuman (approx. 30 minutes riding time). To get to the Charlemagne building, walk along Rue de la Loi (Wetstraat) and you will find it on the right.
- ✓ By Taxi: A taxi from the airport takes about 30 minutes and costs about 45 €. Alternatively, you can pre-order a 'Taxi Vert' online at <http://www.taxisverts.be/en/>

From Brussels South Train Station (Gare du Midi/Zuidstation):

- ✓ Metro: At Gare du Midi, take metro line 2 or 6 (direction Simonis) and change at Arts-Loi (Kunst Wet). From Arts-Loi, take metro line 1 or 5 (direction Stockel or Herrmann-Debroux). Get off at the second stop (Schuman). To get to the Charlemagne building, follow the directions towards the exit 'Berlaymont-Charlemagne'

From Brussels centre (Gare Centrale or De Brouckere):

- ✓ Take the metro line 1 (Stockel) or 5 (Hermann-Debroux); get off at Schuman and follow the directions towards the exit 'Berlaymont-Charlemagne'.

Taxis for persons with reduced mobility (PRM):

- ✓ Taxiverts offers a taxi service specially equipped with ramps and elevators for persons with reduced mobility (PRM). The service is available 24/7 and the price is identical to that of conventional taxis.
